Local area description

Located in the heart of Berlin, ABDA’s event spaces at Heidestraße 7 offer a prestigious setting for meetings, conferences, and events. Just a short walk from Berlin Central Station, the venue is well-connected to public transportation and easily accessible to both domestic and international guests.

Venue description

As the umbrella organization for all pharmacists, we place a strong emphasis on collaboration among individuals. This philosophy is also reflected in our modern facilities: a design inspired by chemical elements, modular room layouts, and professional event technology provide maximum flexibility for a wide variety of event formats. Centrally located at Berlin’s main train station, the “Hans Meyer Flex Space” business and event venue is ideal for meetings, conferences, workshops, seminars, and networking events. Thanks to the flexible room layout, both small business meetings and larger events can be professionally hosted. Hans Meyer Flex Space combines a modern ambiance with functional amenities, offering companies, associations, and event organizers a central meeting space in Berlin for successful business events and inspiring exchanges. A place for networking, dialogue, and collaboration—here, ideas, people, and encounters give rise to strong connections.
