EVENTLOCATION

The Malzküche in our Neue Mälzerei venue:

Are you looking for a special location with a friendly ambience for your celebration or event? Something with tradition and history, yet modern? Then we have just the thing for you: the Malzküche in the Neue Mälzerei.

More than 100 years ago the Böhmisches Brauhaus brewery was a hotspot in Friedrichshain with beer gardens, festival halls and various restaurants. At its peak, the brewery produced the highest output of beer in Berlin.

We continue the tradition of providing sustenance to customers in this location with our event gastronomy into the present day.

Get your guests in the right mood, for example, with a champagne reception on the terrace. Afterwards you can spend an unforgettable evening with your guests in the Maltzküche.

We offer a large selection of starters, main courses and desserts. A wide range of drinks is, of course, available throughout the evening.
